

2. Why do you want to work at Bank of America?

Hint: You should focus on your personal preferences, and of the goals and working environment in Bank of America. You should simply talk about things that distinguish Bank of America from other banks on the market, and about things hiring managers should be proud of. You can also mention that you fulfill the job requirements.

Good Answers

- I fulfill all the requirements and believe to fit the local working environment perfectly. That's why I want to work at Bank of America.
- I really like Bank of America. I am a satisfied client of the bank, and my family members also have their accounts here. You provide the widest portfolio of products, services and solutions for a huge variety of clients, and I would be proud to work here.
